

I am appalled by Sinclair Broadcasting's plan to use the public airwaves to force its member stations to broadcast an unpaid-for, clearly partisan "documentary" about Senator John Kerry.

I contacted the FCC earlier this year about dangerous media consolidation going on in this country, and this development confirms my worst fears.

Sinclair's actions show why we need to strengthen media ownership rules, not weaken them. They show why the license renewal process needs to involve more than a returned postcard. Thank you.
